We invite you to join SAGT, a CISD gifted academic booster club which partners with the district in supporting the education of gifted and talented (GT) students in the Quest and academically advanced programs.

Who should join SAGT?

- You have a student in the GT program (Quest) or who has been identified as academically gifted.
- You have a student enrolled in Middle School pre-AP science, GT Language Arts, Pre-AP GT English I or II, or Quest English.
- You have a student enrolled in the Accelerated Math courses at the intermediate or middle school.
- You have an interest in supporting the CISD's GT and advanced academic programs.
- You appreciate having the most up-to-date district, state, and national level information regarding gifted and advanced education.
- You want access to nationally renowned speakers in the field of gifted education.

What does SAGT do during the year?

- Have a partnership with the district in helping to provide resources for our GT and academically advanced students
- Present a network opportunity for parents and teachers in CISD
- Support our GT families by offering SENG (Supporting Emotional Needs of the Gifted) Gifted Parent Discussion Groups. Please contact Darlah Edwards if you are interested: Darlah@darlah.com
- Offer forums with national & local experts to provide education to parents, teachers & counselors.
- Fundraising for gifted and advanced academic programs
- Frequent collaboration with GT Coordinator and other CISD administrators
- Representation on CISD's Gifted Program Advisory Committee (GPAC) that makes recommendations to the district's Board of Trustees.
- Representation on CISD's District Advisory Committee (DAC)
- New for 2009-2010: Implementation of student enrichment programs
- Provide funding for teacher's out-of-pocket expenses for professional workshops

Please complete the back of this flyer with the membership fee of $20 to join!
